Bar duties are counted towards work party hours.

To view club events on the web calendar, go to the web site home page. The calendar is on the right side of the page. Blued out dates are events. Place your cursor over the highlighted day and you will view a short summary. To view the full details you will need to click onto the date where a full description will be displayed.

Remember if you do not log on to the web site you will only be able to access public information, you will not be able to view articles intended just for HSC members. Please register if you do not have a username and password to enable you to do this.

Members are welcome to bring guests to all social events but please remember to sign them in, it is a legal requirement.

If guests become regular visitors please do not be offended if we ask them to consider joining the club, perhaps as social members. HSC is a private members club and will only be viable if we generate sufficient income including membership subscriptions.
